

FASD: Taking Action in Ontario

3rd Biennial Symposium

Thursday, March 24, 2016
8:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Delta Toronto, 75 Lower Simcoe Street, Toronto, Ontario - map

This day-long symposium will showcase important policy initiatives, research findings, clinical advancements, and cutting edge service initiatives in FASD.

The 2016 FASD ONE Symposium coincides with a number of important developments in FASD including:

- Ontario's first Provincial FASD Strategy
- The Newly Revised Canadian Diagnostic Guidelines on FASD
- Emerging and innovative responses in Education
- National analysis of promising FASD prevention efforts in Canada and identification of gaps relative to best practice
- Emerging practice for family support

Speakers Confirmed to Date:

Nancy Poole, Ph.D
Director, BC Centre of Excellence for Women's Health
Prevention Lead,
CanFASD Research Network

Jocelynn Cook, Ph.D., MBA
Scientific Director
Society of Obstetricians and Gynecologists of Canada

Sean Monteith
Director of Education
Keewatin-Patricia District School Board

The Kim Meawasige Memorial Lecture (speaker TBA) will be presented.

Symposium Objectives

- Learn about the implications and practical application of policy, research and clinical developments.
- Establish and nurture linkages among researchers, government, communities, service providers and families.
- Consider opportunities to develop collaborative community partnerships.
- Learn from the lived experience of others.

Who Should Attend

This symposium will be of interest to the following audience: researchers, policymakers, people with FASD, family members, FASD specialists, clinicians, counsellors, community-based practitioners, Indigenous communities, educators, health care professionals, mental health professionals, addiction workers, justice workers, child welfare professionals, service providers, elected officials, ministry personnel, faith communities, community members, and anyone interested in the field of FASD.

Registration Fee

The registration fee is $175 and includes breakfast and lunch.

Deadline for registrations is Tuesday, March 15, 2016

For more information, contact Lisa Howarth

FASDONE@mothercraft.org | 416-476-8975

Please feel free to forward this information to others who may be interested in attending.

Funding for this event was made possible by the Public Health Agency of Canada.

Sponsored by:

