Parents Helping Parents FASD Ontario

There is much to be learned from the true FASD experts, those affected by FASD. The presenter lives with FASD and his goal is to inspire audiences to change the way they view FASD as a disability and empower those with the disability to know and find their purpose

This is a free, 3 hour virtual workshop to which all family members are invited: those affected by FASD, parents and caregivers, non-affected siblings, extended family members, and supportive friends.
